

January 12, 2023

Fathers, brothers, and guests of South Texas Presbytery,

On behalf of the Session and congregation of Redeemer Presbyterian Church, we are thrilled to host you for the Stated Meeting of our presbytery on January 27-28 in downtown San Antonio (903 N. St. Mary's, 78215). This meeting is especially significant for Redeemer. After a lengthy pastoral search process, our congregation has joyfully voted to call Rev. Paul Hahn as Pastor of our church. Paul will be coming before the Presbytery in January. Additionally, 2023 marks 20 years of ministry for Redeemer. As we celebrate our anniversary, we remember God's faithfulness through the longtime ministry of our beloved founding pastor, Rev. Dr. Tom Gibbs, and we hope for our future as the Lord leads us into the next chapter of ministry through new pastoral leadership. We are glad to share in this joy together with you!

Please note the following in preparation for our time together:

- 1) Accommodations. On the next page, you will find contact information for some nearby hotels we recommend. We were able to negotiate special room rates with two hotels (the first two listed). Furthermore, if you desire to stay in the home of one of our congregants here, please contact us at (210) 930-4480 and we can assist you with those arrangements.
- 2) RSVP for Friday night dinner. A barbecue dinner will be served beginning at 5:30 p.m. We need to know how many people to plan for, so please RSVP for dinner here. If you have questions about dinner, please email Norma@redeemersa.org or call the church office (210) 930-4480.
- 3) Worship will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Friday evening. Following the worship service, the presbyters are invited to gather at a nearby restaurant/bar on the river in downtown San Antonio, only a few minutes walk from our church.
- 4) A hot breakfast (tacos) will be provided on Saturday morning, beginning at 7 a.m.
- 5) Committee Meetings. Chairman, please notify us whether or not you will need a meeting room on Friday, how many chairs you will need, and the anticipated start and end times for your meeting. Email Norma@redeemersa.org with your room needs.

We look forward to our time together with you in fellowship, worship, meals, and seeking God's kingdom in the work before our Presbytery.

With deep gratitude,

Jeremy Whitley
Executive Director of Church Operations
